I. Primary Purpose

A. Victims of Crime Act Program (VOCA)

The primary purpose of the Crime Victims Assistance Formula Grant Program (VOCA) (supported by the Office for Victims of Crime (OVC), authorized under the Victims of Crime Act of 1984, Public Law 98-473) is to support the provision of the services to victims of crime through the Nation. Services are defined as those efforts that (1) respond to the emotional and physical needs of crime victims; (2) assist primary and secondary victims of crime to stabilize their lives after victimization; (3) assist victims to understand and participate in the criminal justice system; and (4) provide victims of crime with a measure of safety and security. A crime victim is a person who has suffered physical, sexual, financial, or emotional harm as a result of the commission of a crime. VOCA requires programs to provide direct services to victims of crime. Priority is given to victims of sexual assault, domestic abuse, child abuse, and previously underserved.

B. Stop Violence Against Women Program (STOP)

The primary purpose of the Violence Against Women Formula Grant Program (STOP), is supported by the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) and authorized under Title 1 of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, first enacted in the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 (VAWA) and then reauthorized in 2000, 2005, and 2013 (Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 [VAWA 2015]). The intent of STOP is the reduction of violence by developing and strengthening effective law enforcement and prosecution strategies to combat crimes against women. Priority shall be given to women who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. This program applies only to crimes against women ages 11 and older.

C. Sexual Assault Services Program (SASP)

The primary purpose of the OVW Sexual Assault Services Formula Grant Program (SASP), created by the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) and the Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005 and 2013 (Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 [VAWA 2015]), is to provide intervention, advocacy, accompaniment (e.g., accompanying victims to court, medical facilities, police departments, etc.), support services, and related assistance to adults, youth, and child victims of sexual assault; family and household members of such victims; and those collaterally affected by the victimization (e.g., friends, coworkers, classmates), except for the perpetrator of such victimization. Funds provided through the SASP Formula Grant Program are designed to supplement other funding sources directed at addressing sexual assault on the state level.

4. The most current LCLE standard contract form must be used, which is available LCLE website. The only exception is when the subgrantee is a state agency and a state approved contract is used.
5. Rate of compensation must be reasonable and consist with similar service and must be in compliance with OMB Cost Principles. Written documentation may be necessary on a case-by-case basis.
6. Contractual agreement is to contain detailed description of work to be performed. This must agree with the brief description found in the application.
7. The maximum consultant rate for all programs is $650 for an eight hour day or $81.25 per hour. This rate excludes travel and subsistence cost but includes, preparation, evaluation, and travel time.
8. Rates exceeding the $650 for an eight hour day or $81.25 per hour will require approval from LCLE Program Manager.
9. Procurement of contractual services over $100,000 must receive prior approval from OJP or OVW, depending on the federal source of funding. This request requires the submittal of a “Sole Source Justification Form”, which is available on the LCLE website. This request must be submitted to the LCLE.
10. Procurement of contractual services under $100,000 must receive prior approval from the Victim Services Advisory Board. The hiring of consultants is subject to competitive procedures, for which each agency must have a procurement policy. Sole Source is needed when the competitive process cannot be implemented when choosing a consultant.
