Important Information About Victim Notification

If you have been a victim or designated family member of a victim of certain crimes, you may be entitled to certain rights under Louisiana's Crime Victim Bill of Rights, including but not limited to:

- The right to receive emergency social or medical services as soon as possible.
- The right to be notified of a defendant's arrest, release on recognizance, posting of bond, release pending charges being filed, release due to rejection of charges by the district attorney, escape, or re-apprehension.
- The right to be interviewed in a private setting and to a secure area during criminal proceedings.
- The right to requests for assistance by judicial and law enforcement agencies in informing employers that the need for cooperation in the prosecution of the case may necessitate absence from work.
- The right to reasonable notice and to be present and heard during all critical stages of pre-conviction and post-conviction proceedings, and the right to be notified of scheduling changes of criminal justice proceedings.
- The right to consult with the prosecution prior to the trial and final disposition of the case.
- The right to refuse to be interviewed by the accused or a representative of the accused.
- The right to review and comment upon the pre-sentence report prior to imposition of sentencing, and the right to be notified of the minimum and maximum sentence allowed by law.
- The right to be present at all phases of the court proceedings, including the sentencing hearing.
- The right to make a written or oral impact statement.
- The right to seek restitution.
- The right to a reasonably prompt conclusion to the case.

In order for a victim or designated family member to be eligible to receive notices and exercise the rights listed above, the victim or designated family member must complete a "Louisiana Victim Notice and Registration Form" and file it with the law enforcement agency investigating the offense of which the person is a victim OR the district attorney's office that has jurisdiction over the case. By completing and properly filing this form you have officially registered for notification and every attempt will be made to notify you of the above events based on the contact information you have provided. It is important that you notify the investigating law enforcement agency and district attorney's office of any changes in your contact information.

To qualify for these statutory rights, you or your family member must be a victim of a homicide, felony crime of violence as defined or enumerated in R.S. 14:2(B), sexual offense, certain vehicular related offenses, offense committed against a family or household member as defined in R.S. 46:2132(4) or dating partner as defined in R.S. 46:2151(B), or attempts to commit any of these offenses, including but not limited to:
